A number of moves have been made by business men in this city this month. Wm. Friend has moved his stock to Oklahoma, and Langham & Son occupy the vacated store room. D. Bakhaus will open a bakery and restaurant in the room vacated by Langham. Wm. Jones has moved into the room vacated by Dick Glissman, and Jim Keenan will occupy the room vacated by Jones.

A large number of the counties in this state have no county boards of health, and the county commissioners of these counties have been notified by the attorney general that such boards must be organized at once in accordance with the law, or they will be compelled to do so by mandamus proceedings. The attorney general has taken this action at the suggestion of the state board of health.

A girl in Arkansas City recently found a lot of old love letters written by her father to her mother many years before they were married. The daughter read them to her mother, pretending they were of recent date, and substituted her own name for that of her mother's and the name of a young man well known to both of them, for her father's. The mother was very much disgusted and has forsince that time neither God nor man bidden her daughter to have anything to do with a young man that will write of any Eastern works.
